THE DESIGNER
COLLECTION

Featuring Kelly Hoppen London furniture and accessories

First impressions are everything. An appealing and beautiful show home is important, as first impressions mean a lot.”

KELLY HOPPEN
NEW i.d.ENTITY MAGAZINE, 2013

About

The Designer Collection from New i.d Interiors features selected furniture and accessories from the Kelly Hoppen London range. The collection comprises two packages, Indulgence and Opulence, that includes the design, delivery and installation of the furniture, soft furnishings and accessories. Every installation is project managed by one of New i.d's talented interior designers.

Kelly Hoppen is not only an exceptionally talented interior designer, but thanks to her numerous television appearances, including being a 'dragon' on BBC2's Dragon's Den, has become a household name. Being at the forefront of British interior design for almost 40 years, Kelly naturally recognises and appreciates the importance of quality interiors and the difference furnishings can make in an investment property or any living space.

Kelly's love for interior design began when she was just 16 years old and was asked to design a friend's kitchen. Since then, her career has gone from strength to strength, seeing her design interiors for many high-profile clients.

New i.d's association with Kelly Hoppen dates back to June 2013 when she shared her expertise and creative intuition on what makes a great show home interior in their in-house magazine.

"First impressions are everything. An appealing and beautiful show home is important, as first impressions mean a lot..." said Ms Hoppen.

New i.d Interiors' exclusive alliance with Kelly Hoppen London promises to deliver show home, investment property or private interior design that is unique, beautiful and irresistibly appealing.

CEO of New i.d Interiors, Daniel Caplan stated "We are excited and very proud that Kelly Hoppen London has allowed us to feature their furniture in our new Designer Collection. We have identified a gap in the market for a much higher quality one-stop furniture collection and are anticipating the new range to prove very successful, particularly in having such a strong brand association with Kelly Hoppen London."
